We are delighted to WELCOME you back to the Rye Hotel.

Lockdown has been hard for all of us, finally we have some way of getting out.

Firstly, our apologies, with limited numbers our menu is also smaller, our bar service is also limited with the large variety of tap beers reduced.

With limited staff permitted to work, we will at this time be unable to serve you with cocktails.

We want you to know that these limitations will be short lived and when all our staff are fully vaccinated, we will have more options available to you. In the meantime, we request that you respect our decision and the team members who serve you. Please consider using our 'Your Order' QR code located below as an option for ordering your meals.

Again, thank you for being fully vaccinated and supporting us!
